

Wilmore Senior Community Center Events in November

(Please note: all events are free and open to the public unless otherwise noted)

Thursday, November 1st, 6:00 pm

Movie Night: “Wonder” (2017; PG; 113 mins.)

Back by popular demand, this film, based on a New York Times bestseller, tells the inspiring and heartwarming story of a little boy born with facial deformities – a most unlikely hero among his fifth grade peers. Starring Julia Roberts, Owen Wilson and Jacob Tremblay.

Friday, November 2nd, 1:15 pm

Alspach/Benny Distinguished Lecture:

“The Diverse Ancient Native Cultures of Central Kentucky”

To mark the start of Native American Heritage Month, Dr. A. Gwynn Henderson from the UK Dept. of Anthropology, will enlighten us on our true Kentucky ancestors dating all the way back to 9,500 BC.

Saturday, November 3rd, 2 pm

Evangelism Resources presents...

Sagar Bhukya comes with exciting news of how 150,000 Banjara Villages in South Asia are being reached for Christ!

Tuesday, November 6th, 6 am to 6 pm

Election Day

The Wilmore Senior Community Center at Wesley Village proudly serves as the official polling place for precincts D-105 and E-106-6E #1. Local, state and national level candidates are running for office – please vote and make your voice heard!

Wednesday, November 7th, 1:00 pm

Wesley Village Book Club

Jack and Betty Kesler will lead a discussion of “Save Me,” by Lisa Scottoline (2011) – the emotionally powerful story about school “bullying” as seen through a mother’s eyes. “A breathless ride,” says one reviewer, with ultimately a happy ending.

Thursday, November 8th, 10:30 am

Making Scripture Come Alive for Readers and Listeners!

Learn how to read Scripture aloud in ways that engage listeners and illumine your own understanding. Discover techniques that make professional readers and speakers so effective.

AND have fun while practicing. Asbury U. Drama Instructor, Carol Anderson, has led similar workshops at seminaries, colleges and churches across the country with great results.

Thursday, November 8th, 3:00 pm

An Afternoon Reading with Dr. John Oswalt

Asbury Seminary’s Distinguished Professor of the Old Testament returns to present more passages from his personal favorite short stories.
